Phase I Volunteers Amaze

Since June, scores of church volunteers have been helping clean, patch, prepare, and paint the meeting and classroom spaces in the Jones Building, supervised by volunteers on the church's Buildings & Grounds team

In addition, untold voluntary hours have been spent by B&G associates performing specialty tasks like dismantlement and spray-painting.

Much has been accomplished!
Volunteers still needed to fill up two-hour shifts in August – please sign up if you can help.

Sign up at Sunday coffee hour table, or online at <http://www.c3huu.org/osof-1.html>

Meanwhile, back at The Gap.... The Capital Fund thanks the many volunteers who donate homegrown produce, flowers and eggs, and handmade inspirations to raise funds for the Building Project.

Look at all these lovely, delicious things at the Pop-Up Mart this Sunday!

This table has already raised over $1000 to help Close The Gap!

And Did You Know? Early payment of capital pledges, when possible, collectively saves many $$$ in interest costs. For info about possible "QCD" tax benefits if you are over 70, click on link below.
